

WORKING MOTHER

WORKING MOTHER & FLEX-TIME LAWYERS
BEST LAW FIRMS FOR WOMEN

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER 2009

50 Best law firms for women

These are turbulent times for law firms. The economy is still reeling, several prestigious firms have collapsed, and layoffs have been rampant. No doubt about it, this sector is feeling the recession. But for working-mom lawyers, who've long sought more flexibility, this may be just the moment they've been waiting for. Our 50 Working Mother & Flex-Time Lawyers Best Law Firms for Women are leading the charge for change, using the power of flex both to cut costs and retain lawyers. Already, our winning firms have more lawyers working reduced hours (8 percent versus 5 percent nationwide) and also employ more female equity partners, who share in their firm's profits (20 percent versus 16 percent nationwide)—and that's just for starters. We salute these firms for recognizing that making the legal profession work for women is good business for everyone.

Jenner & Block Named One of Working Mother's Best Law Firms for Women

Jenner & Block

Female equity partners 16%
 Female nonequity partners 26%
 Lawyers working reduced hours 8%
 U.S. lawyers 484
 Female counsel 45%
 Female associates 45%
 Female lawyers promoted to nonequity partner, 2004–2008 13%
 Female lawyers promoted to equity partner, 2004–2008 27%
 Lawyers working reduced hours, 2004–2008 5%

Weeks paid maternity leave 18
 Weeks paid paternity leave 6
 Weeks paid adoption leave 12
 Offer phase-back program for new moms? Yes
 Offer reentry program for lawyer moms? Yes
 Offer formal flextime program for associates & counsel? N/A
 Lawyers working flextime schedule N/A
 Offer support groups for reduced-hours lawyers? Yes

WHAT WE LOVE Women attorneys at this full-service firm are encouraged to connect with one another and their communities. Last October, 100 of Jenner & Block’s female attorneys from Chicago, New York and Washington, DC, gathered at the Chicago Ritz-Carlton for the firm’s first-ever two-day women’s retreat, where they had a chance to network, talk about work/life issues and hear from speakers such as the firm’s female managing partner and an Illinois Supreme Court justice. Women also serve on key internal committees, including the firm committee that handles compensation.

How We Picked the Winners

The Application The Best Law Firms for Women application was developed with Flex-Time Lawyers, a national consulting firm that advises law students, attorneys and legal employers on work/life balance, retaining and promoting women and law-firm restructuring. The application includes questions about issues important to the retention and promotion of female lawyers. We selected the 50 winning firms based on their scored responses.

What’s Measured Firms were evaluated on their workforce profile, family-friendly benefits and policies, flexibility, leadership, compensation, and their advancement and retention of women, among other factors.

This Year’s Winners The Best Law Firms were selected based on 2008 data. DFD Consulting, a Maplewood, NJ-based independent research company, tabulated scores and assisted with validating the applications.

Making the List Firms with at least 50 lawyers were eligible to apply. The applicant pool was self-selected. Surveys were scored based on an algorithm that gave different weights to specific survey sections and questions.

How to Apply Please register at wmmsurveys.com. Applications for 2010 will be available in November 2009.

(#19278) Excerpted and adapted from the August/September 2009 issue of Working Mother magazine.

Copyright © 2009 Bonnier Working Mother Media, Inc. All rights reserved.

For more information about reprints from Working Mother, contact PARS International Corp. at 212-221-9595.